Happy Hour.

The old time favorite has returned with a new company of musical comedy entertainers; tonight is the last oppor tunity to witness the New York production, big hit, "Teezy Weezy." two nights it has pleased the capacity houses and Mr. Teal has even surpassed the expectations of his admirers here. Their policy of one show a right has mit the right spot; they offer real productions, and costumed bills and a grand orchestra; those that baven't seen the opening bill will miss a treat if they don't attend tonight. Commencing Thursday, they will offer "The Sultan of Morocco," an Oriental production of the highest type. The wardrobe to be worn in this bill is simply gorgeous, all silks and satins, and it will contain 16 musical numbers which will give the big real chorus an excellent chance to prove its superiority over any chorus so far seen in El Paso. This is a royalty play and the first time shown here. The matinec, Saturday, 10c and 20c, promises to break all records; tickets 5 days in advance may be secured at Ryan's Drug Curtain at 8:15. Only one show night-real productions.

I had been a hard drinker for thirty years when induced by a friend to take the Globe Three Day Cure. In three hours after the first medicine was given me I had no desire to drink, though it was right there in my room. I want to state to all drinking men in El Paso, especially my drinking friends, to take advantage of this opportunity to free themselves from their slavery to alcohol. I do not now feel any nervousness and feel better than I have for twenty years. I am sure that I will never taste whisky again. I am under everlasting obligations to the Globe Three Day treatment for curing me.

Parisian Sage the Guaranteed Hair Grower and Dandruff Cure. Mrs. J. R. Burges writes from 514

Plum St., Danville, Va., June 4, 1910. "I have usel Parisian Sage and find it to be all you claim for it, and cheersuffering from any hair, dandruff or scalp trouble."

On the same date Ruth Odille Bur gess, the charming little daughter of Mrs. Burgess, wrote

"I am only a little girl, but I want to tell what Parisian Sage has done two me. I had a scalp disease that looked like dandruff and when it was combed up there would be a bloody water under the dandruff. Mamma tried everything in the way of hair tonics, without results, until she saw the advertisement of Parisian Sage; she got a bottle and cured me, but kept on using it. Now I have as beautiful a head of hair as any girl." Men, women and children, in every ection of America, who are using ordinary commercial hair tonies shou. give Parislan Sage a trial. It is so far ahead of all others that one application wil prove its great superiorky. It is guaranteed by Kelly & Pollard to stop falling hair and itching scalp, and to drive out all dandruff in two weeks, or money back. It grows hair in abundance and gives to the hair a lustrous and fascinating appearance, has cents a large bottle at Kelly & Pollard's
